I'm excited to introduce myself and share how I can craft the perfect vacation for you.

Hailing from the picturesque Northwest of British Columbia, where my family and I raised our son, I spent over 25 years successfully running a full-service hair salon. During this time, I also managed the administrative aspects of our family's electrical contracting business, homeschooled our son, and worked as a First Aid Instructor and part-time attendant. Balancing these roles has given me a deep appreciation for how essential stress-free vacations are for busy families and entrepreneurs, especially women in business.

After completing our homeschooling journey and engaging in both local and international volunteer work, my passion for travel led me to become a travel consultant. In March 2020, I joined Claire Newell's Travel Best Bets, coinciding with significant changes in the travel industry.

Although relatively new to the industry, I am well-versed in the wonders of travel. My family and I have embarked on over 40 cruises, as well as many land adventures.

. Our adventures have spanned Europe, the Middle East, South America, and North America. From motorcycling through the southern United States to exploring the magic of Universal and Disney parks, and delving into ancient histories in Israel, Egypt, Italy and Greece, I've been fortunate to experience many incredible destinations.

For the past decade, my husband and I have divided our time between the historic city of Cuenca, Ecuador, and the stunning southwest coast of British Columbia. When I'm not crafting dream vacations, I enjoy reading (spy novels, thrillers, and destination guides are my favorites), knitting, gaming, running, or planning my next adventure.

As a Travel Best Bets consultant, my goal is to save you time, money, and stress by designing vacations uniquely tailored to your preferences. I understand firsthand how precious your time is, and I'm committed to ensuring every trip you take is as memorable and effortless as possible.

I highly value continuous training and have earned numerous certifications with Canadian and international suppliers and consortia, ensuring that I stay updated with the latest industry trends and offerings.

Let's turn your travel dreams into lasting memories. I'm excited to start planning your next adventure today!
